

K-LOVE FM radio station is what I listen to on the radio-I know that I can listen without advertising for products I don't use or want while listening to family music and upbeat messages, and if it was taken off the air I would be very sad and I'm sure that the community would be worse off because we wouldn't have the good influence of Christian music for our kids.